JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

NOTICE.

An ornament called "Sirpesh Turai" belonging to the Nanjangud Sri Srikanteswara-swami Temple is reported to have been lost on the night of the 3rd January 1912 during the procession of the swami in connection with Andhakasura Samhara.

The ornament was like a leaf with its tip bent to the right side and had 69 rubies and 15 emeralds set in $14\frac{1}{2}$ Varaha weight of gold. A big pearl had been attached as a drop to the bent tip of the Sirpesh. It had a silver plate as a back lining and silver hooks for tying it on while decorating the deity. Its weight was Rs. 5-13-0.

Any information leading to its discovery may be kindly communicated to the undersigned.

B. S. RANOJI RAO,
Superintendent of Police.
